JAZZ JAZZ: The Cozzetti Gemmill Quartet, with new drummer Fred Taylor, plays what it calls
"jazz-fusion rock" this weekend at Parnell's in Pioneer Square.

Instrumentation includes lead saxophone or trumpet, accompanied by electric or acoustic piano, bass and drums.

The group's origins are Seattle and Boston, with a recent stint in New York City.

It also will perform January 29 at the Bombay Bicycle Shop at a benefit for the Ninth Annual Variety Club Telethon.

The Cozzetti Gemmill Quartet (formerly Rorschach) will appear at Parnell's January 13-15 to spread some good contemporary jazz-fusion-rock around. The group consists of Robert Cozzetti on trumpet and piano, Timothy Gemmill on saxaphones and piano, Steve Bartlett on electric bass, and Fred Taylor on drums. On Jan. 29th, the Cozzetti Gemmill Quartet, in cooperation with the 9th Annual KIRO-TV Variety Club Telethon, will hold a benefit at the Bombay Bicycle Shop. All proceeds from the door will benefit the Variety Club's Children's Charities and will be presented by the Quartet on the Telethon Feb. 5th.
