RORSCHACH

An Original Jazz Quartet

July 3-1977.

FEATURING

ROBERT. COZZETTI * TIMOTHY GEMMILL * MIDGE PIKE * BRUCE JACKSON

Robert Cozzetti and Timothy Gemmill, the originators and leaders of Rorschach, began their music association in 1968 as a tenor-trumpet combination with rock and rhythm 'n' blues groups. They have remained together, offering successful jazz programs across the country. In New York, they have earned applause and critics' huzzahs as such sites as The Bitter End, Folk City^{mercer} Arts Center, Lincoln Center, The Brooklyn Museum Theater-in-the-Back, and the United Nations.

Today's program features Mr. Cozzetti on Trumpet, Fender-Rhodes electric and acoustic piano; Mr. Gemmill on tenor and soprano saxophone; Mr. Pike on bass; and Mr. Jackson on drums.
