Both Theater-in-the-Back and the Prospect Park Summer Season have opened skillfully. Theatre-in-the-Back, which offers expert entertainment at 7 p.m. every Saturday and Sunday in the parking lot area of The Brooklyn Museum, debuted with jazz wonders Rorschach and the brilliant new dance-theater ensemble Solaris. Rorschach, which earned accolades last summer, returned to the outdoor setting with a first-rate jazz improvisational event, using original work, and capturing spellbound attention with the work of Bob Cozzetti, Steve Swartz, and Timothy Gemmill.
